Christopher Lawless is the Lansdowne Chair in Finance, Gustavson School of Business, University of Victoria. He was the chief economist at BCI, the British Columbia Investment Management Corporation, from 2001 to 2019. Chris also served as Tangerine Chair in Finance at Western University's Ivey Business School (2011-2019) where he co-founded Canada's first FinTech research centre (the Scotiabank Digital Banking Lab), and as an advisor to House of Commons and Senate committees. Chris has an M.A. in economics from Oxford University in Zurich, New York and London from 1990-1998 (Credit Suisse, RBC Dominion Securities) and central banking in Ottawa and Basel from 2001-2011 (Bank of Canada, Bank for International Settlements). Michael completed his PhD at the London School of Economics in 2001 and his CFA designation in 1999. He has taught finance to undergraduates, MBAs, and executives. His research focuses on FinTech, banking, international financial markets, and corporate finance.
