

GLOBAL PACIFIC
FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD.

eBulletin: July 10, 2020

Submitted by Victoria on July 10, 2020 - 9:19am

image not found file:///home/globalpa/private_files/Canada%20Life%20eBulletin.JPG

A rectangular placeholder box with a thin black border. Inside the box, there is a large, faint, light-gray 'X' shape that spans the width and height of the box, indicating that the image content is missing or not rendered.

Canada Life now accepts electronic signatures for Agent of Record change requests

- Canada Life now accepts secure electronic signatures by clients on Agent of Record (AOR) change requests for both insurance and segregated funds, provided you use an eSignature provider you've entered a contract with
- You must use an eSignature provider you've entered a contract with, not Microsoft Paint or other editing tools which are not acceptable for electronic signatures
- You're don't need to provide your client's email and phone number as long as we have the transaction summary report from your eSignature provider. We'll contact your client if we have questions
- You must verify all eSignatures with your clients prior to submission and inform your client that Canada Life may contact them to confirm their request

Chinese 2020 Financial facts now available

- You can view and download this year's Financial facts in traditional Chinese (46-4758 CH) and simplified Chinese (46-4758 CHS) from the Chinese marketing catalogue and order printed copies through Supply Services

Crises are trend accelerators: Six market trends happening right now

- COVID-19 has meant big changes ? whether we like it or not, but humans are built for change by being social, resilient and innovative
- Companies can gain a competitive advantage by thinking about safety first as they delivery their product or service
- Digital delivery and online retail have become a necessity for everyday business as ecommerce, as a percentage of overall retail, has grown substantially over the last six months
- Crises accelerate existing trends; however, they're also catalysts for change and innovation. Capital markets are at the heart of entrepreneurship and will be part of every opportunity as they develop

COVID-19: Helping you help your clients

- We're committed to supporting you and your clients as we see growing concern over COVID-19
- Check out our COVID-19 landing page with all the information and resources you need to navigate through these unprecedented conditions